The trial of the case of Wilson & Hannah vs. P. M. Granberry was begun and the case is still

There were two criminal district courts In session in Houston yesterday, or rather two judges conducting the criminal district court in different rooms. The Tom Seber murder trial, which has consumed the entire term of the court this week, was on trial in the regular court room before Spe cial Judge S. R. Perryman, while Judge Gillasple, the regular judge, called his court to order premptly at 9 o'clock in the office of the district attorney.

Judge Gillasple in the short session of the criminal district court held by him in district attorney's office yesterday guilty and receive their punishment in preference to Iying in jail until the next trial. He also heard the report of the grand jury as to bills of indictment found by that body. The grand jury made no minal report, either verbal or written, but it was discharged for the term by Judge Gillieppe. All cases pending in the criminal district court of this county were continued until the next term by Judge Gillasple, it being evident that there will be no time for the trial of any other case today.

The defense in the Tom Seber murder trial, on hearing before Special Judge S. R. Perryman, which began the taking of its testimony Thursday night, continued all day and there seemed to be no hope of the conclusion of the testimony being reached in time for a verdict at this term of the mined that a verdict shall be rendered argue the case this morning and the jury we given some time in which to consider the evidence and render a verdice before the experiment of this term of court.
